H YEAR, there was a feared gaping hole through which the education system would be washed away. Most people feared that the education system would be washed away. The world predicted that the education system would be washed away. The news was devastating. The news was devastating. The news was devastating.

But not all schools started with commercial inter-...