MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR LA TROBE UNIVERSITY

I am delighted to welcome you to this graduation ceremony. Warmest congratulations to all those receiving degrees today.

Graduations are an important occasion for the University, providing us with an opportunity to recognise your success, and to celebrate your attainment of knowledge – your most important possession, and the essential foundation for the next stage of your life.

Every university has a distinctive character and traditions, and one of La Trobe's defining features is the way our graduates show strong engagement with the world. This has been the case for more than 55 years and remains so today. As a graduate, you will join a community of more than 260,000 alumni in 140 countries who are working in their chosen fields to make the world a better place.

Thank you for being part of the La Trobe community, and for the contributions you have made to the University through your study and your participation in campus life. You are now lifelong members of La Trobe University. I encourage you to connect with other graduates around the world and stay involved with La Trobe.

Do not see this celebration as the endpoint of your education, for learning is a lifelong process. Your skills and knowledge must be regularly updated, and new technologies mastered. Should you need to extend or upgrade your knowledge and skills, La Trobe University will always welcome you back.

In the meantime, congratulations once again from all of us at La Trobe University. All the very best for your future endeavours.
