28 JULY 2022

Learn for Life
Thrive for Life

La Trobe University,
Australia

A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

I am delighted to welcome you to this graduation ceremony and warmly congratulate all those receiving degrees.

Graduations are an important occasion for the University. They are an opportunity to recognise your success, and to celebrate your attainment of knowledge – your most important possession, and the essential foundation for the next stage of your life.

You have worked under extraordinary circumstances over the last 12 months to manage the challenges presented by COVID-19. You have shown great resilience, resourcefulness and innovation to complete your studies. We are very proud of what you have achieved.

Every university has a distinctive character and tradition, and one of La Trobe's defining traditions is that our graduates show a strong engagement with the world. This has been the case for 55 years and remains so today. As a graduate, you will join a community of over 228,000 alumni in more than 130 countries who are working in their chosen fields to make the world a better place.

Do not see today's ceremony as the endpoint of your education, for learning is a lifelong process. To best serve the communities of the world, your skills and knowledge must be regularly updated, and new technologies mastered. Should you need to extend or upgrade your knowledge and skills, La Trobe University will always welcome you back.

Thank you for being part of the La Trobe community, and for the contribution you have made to the University through your study, your research, and your participation in campus life.

It is with much pleasure that I congratulate you on your success at the Singapore Institute of Management and wish you all the very best in your future careers.
